

GENDER, CULTURE AND WELLBEING

Off the Record (Bristol) are looking for young women aged 16-22 to take part in a Participatory Action Research (PAR) project starting in July 2013. PAR is a type of social research that explores the relationship between our individual experiences and wider society. As a researcher on this project you will get a new perspective on your own life and the world around you. Using what we learn, together, we will create a project for social change.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

Young women aged 16-22 who live in Easton, St Pauls and Barton Hill who can commit six hours a week for eight weeks.

WHAT YOU GET FROM US:

Work experience, training, new skills, a written reference and cash voucher. You'll also have a lot of fun and meet new people!

To get involved or find out more
